DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 1-22 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 19-40 of copending Application No. 10/915,011. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the instantly claimed elastomeric olefin, propylene polymer, peroxide and coagent are set forth in the copending claims and the claimed properties overlap in scope.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Claims 1-22 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-7 and 1-13 of U.S. Patent No. 6,774,186 and 6,548,600 respectively. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the instantly claimed elastomeric olefin, propylene polymer, peroxide and coagent are set forth in the copending claims and the claimed properties overlap in scope.

The terminal disclaimers filed 1/30/06 have been reviewed and have been disapproved. The attorney who signed the disclaimers is not of record in the instant case.

Applicants argue that the " Notice of Customer Number Record Change" identifies Mr. Ashburg by registration number. This is not sufficient. The ADS lists one attorney whom is not Mr. Ashburg. The disclaimer needs to be resubmitted with the language "I am empowered to act on behalf of..." No fee required.
